GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mannell, Maryland black, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 4, '98, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he writes, "and today my hair as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Ambushed by Indians.

Six United States deputy marshals were ambushed in Spavinaw hills, near Kansas, I. T., by a band of full-blood Indian outlaws Sunday night. In a fight which ensued three deputies met their death. They were I. L. Gilstrap, of Kansas; Otis Tuttle, of Virginia, and Richard Carey, of Tahlequah, I. T.

Thomas Wofford, one of the deputies who escaped, carried the news to Tahlequah yesterday, and Marshal Darragh issued orders to rush every deputy marshal in the northern district of the Indian Territory to the scene. Details of the fight have not yet been received.

Marshal Darragh, in addition, wired the Department of Justice at Washington asking authority to swear in 100 additional deputies and to offer $1,000 reward for each of the outlaws, dead or alive. He has gone to Kansas, and will personally direct operations against the outlaws.

The gang was headed by Charley, John and Thomas Wickliffe, sons of a former justice of the Cherokee Supreme Court. The three Wickliffe boys began their careers five years ago, when they were concerned in a stabbing affair at an Indian dance.

The deputy marshals were ambushed Sunday night while hunting the Wickliffes for the murder last March of Deputy Vier. The horses of the deputies were shot from under them, and Gilstrap, Tuttle and Carey were killed outright.

The other three sought shelter behind rocks. When Wofford started back on foot to Tahlequah for reinforcements the others were holding the Indians at bay.

Moore bloodshed is feared. It is said that many of the younger full-blood Indians in the Spavinaw hills are joining the Wickliffes. Several famous Indian fighters are among the posers.

The ambush laid by the Wickliffes for the deputies was cleverly planned. The officers were lured into it unsuspectingly and were fired on without warning. The deputies fought desperately, and for a time escape for any of them seemed impossible.

Apologized to Court.

When the case of Ernest Richards was called yesterday before United States Commissioner Shields in New York, Lawyer Hugh Gordon Miller, formerly of Norfolk, Va., who at the last hearing in the case struck Anthony Comstock in the face for calling him a liar, handed the following communication to Commissioner Shields:

"I desire now publicly, and in open court, before this case is disposed of, to offer my profound apology to your honor for an episode which occurred in this court, and in this case, on Friday. I do this independent of, and as an entirely separate proposition from the cause of the regrettable occurrence, or the provocation I had in striking Mr. Comstock. I offer this apology not in any way to Mr. Comstock, but to the court, in recognition of the respect due it as a temple of justice, as well as to your honor personally. In the excitement of the moment I omitted this apology at the time of the occurrence. I wish this voluntary apology to the majesty of the law, which your honor has so long and so ably represented, to be spread upon the record of the court in this case."

Mr. Comstock has offered no apology. Lawyer Miller has received over a hundred letters congratulating him for his act in striking Comstock. All, with a few exceptions, have been strangers. One letter accused Lawyer Miller of trying to make himself the most popular man in the United States and then to be a candidate for the presidency to succeed Roosevelt.

Testing Petroleum Fuel.

Newport, R. I., March 13.—Two trials with the patent petroleum fuel have already been made in Narragansett Bay by the use of the torpedo boat McKee attached to the naval torpedo station, under the immediate direction of a board of naval officers from that station, and now it is announced that a third test is scheduled to begin very shortly. The result of the two trials are claimed to have been highly satisfactory save in the torch trial at night when sparks were seen issuing from the smokestack and which it is now expected to wholly eliminate at the coming trial. Capt. Erik G. Lind, formerly in command of naval transports is the patentee.

To Investigate Charges.

Madrid, March 13.—Although the Spanish Cabinet has decided not to allow a parliamentary commission to inquire into the charges of corruption made against certain officers formerly employed in Cuba, General De Lague, the Minister of War, has decided to conduct a departmental investigation of the Spanish generals concerned.

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

DEFERRED ITEMS.

The falls of the Columbia river, the third largest in the country, have been said to develop electric power.

Japanese troops will be entirely out of Manchuria in a few days and the country will be opened to the trade of the world.

Mr. Roosevelt and the anti-Odell faction of New York republicans are said to have been checked by Odell in their efforts to oust him from the chairmanship.

Coal operators announce that they have 9,000,000 tons of hard coal stored in and about New York, and that there will be no increase in the price of fuel, strike or no strike.

Count Di Castelnuovo was convicted at Genoa, Italy, of infidelity, on complaint of his wife, who was Edith Van Buren, of New York. He was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

Mrs. Virginia K. Patterson, wife of Joseph N. Patterson, and the divorced wife of "Count" de Mon crede, of Italy, was removed to Bellevue, New York, Saturday, suffering from alcoholism. Mrs. Patterson, her husband said, is a niece of Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania. She was taken to the hospital on a warrant issued for the determination of her sanity. Mr. Patterson said his wife has been a victim of drink for three years, and that recently she has been drinking heavily.

Harry Hoffman committed suicide in Baltimore Saturday by taking carbolic acid in the yard of the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John L. Brandau. Mrs. Charles Weigman, a sister of Mr. Hoffman, stated that her brother had been living with her since last Thursday a week ago, when his wife had left him, taking her three children with her. Hoffman called to see his wife at her new home before taking the fatal draught and left fruit for the children, for whom he grieved since the break in domestic affairs.

One of the most important captures made in Cambridge, Mass., in years occurred Saturday, when the police caught Albert L. Lambert, the long-sought "Harvard Raffles." He claims that he is the son of former District Attorney Rapp, of Chicago, and asserts that he broke out of the Chicago jail in 1901, while serving a year's sentence for obtaining money under false pretences. For a long time he has made his way at college by "working" students, and by stealing from their rooms. Through his scheme and through thefts, the police believe the man has secured between $4,000 and $5,000.

Eggs With Handles.

Robert E. Foster, of Newton, Sussex county, N. J., an ornithologist and biologist, has succeeded, with the able assistance of his White Leghorn hens, in developing an egg with a handle. Mr. Foster will not tell how he educated the leghorns up to this, but he has seven eggs with handles. One such is on exhibition in the editorial rooms of the Sussex Register and proves the power of suggestion over intelligent and observant fowls. On the small end of this egg is a protuberance from the shell about as big as the handle of a tiny demitasse. The butt of the egg is flattened, so that the egg stands by itself. Anyone can see the immense economic and commercial value of an egg so shaped. Eggheads will be superfluous, hereafter.

Separating Church and State.

Chicago, March, 13.—Departures from the policy of John Alexander Dowie, which will be inaugurated in Zion City by the reform management, were outlined Sunday in Zion tabernacle by the new Deputy General Overseer, Wilbur Glen Volin. As the vital feature in the reforms the Dowieites have decided definitely to separate church and state. Dowie will be permitted to be Elijah III and the first apostle to his heart's content, but not general overseer of the cash box. A number of reforms were outlined by the new overseer.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

The preliminary hearing of the separation proceedings instituted by the Countess Boni de Castellane, formerly Anna Gould, against her husband Count Boni, which was set for March 14 in Paris, will probably be postponed. The lawyers representing the various branches of the case have been in consultation upon the financial features involved and other final details of the procedure. This has resulted in a determination to change the form of the proceedings.

Although authoritative information is withheld for the present, there is reason to believe that the change contemplates the Countess asking for an absolute divorce instead of a separation, which would necessitate a postponement of the hearing, as the change would require filing a new bill of complaint, since the facts recited in the former writ would not suffice for the changed procedure. Moreover, the change will permit of a more prompt final adjustment of all the legal and financial branches than the indefinite three years' stage under a separation. The new papers have not yet been filed, but are expected to be ready in a day or two.

The proposed change appears to be the result of the conclusion of all concerned that a reconciliation between the Countess and the Count is impossible during the three years in which the legal separation would be operative.

It is the intention of the lawyers on both sides to avoid public hearings of the case and to secure a decree without a contest.

No Strike of Telegraphers.

All danger of a strike on the Southern Railway was averted last evening when the committee of five, representing the telegraphers and station agents employed on that line, decided to accept the wage scale offered by the officials. Official notification of acceptance was given to H. B. Spencer, general manager of the Southern Railway, this morning. Negotiations between the committee and the officials extended over several hours yesterday. At the conclusion of the session the committee repaired to its headquarters at the National Hotel in Washington and laid before H. P. Perham, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, the scale that had received the sanction of the Southern officials. After discussing the matter until late in the evening, the committee agreed to accept the conditions. The wage scale as agreed upon does not contemplate a minimum or maximum wage, but has been adjusted with a view of fitting each individual case.

Fell From the Gallery.

Edward Honvery, fifty years old, a clerk in the War Department, fell over the railing of the gallery at the Columbia Theatre in Washington last night, landing on his back across a seat in the balcony, twelve feet below. The man's body barely missed several persons. He was removed to his home, 1706 F street northwest. Honvery was arising to leave the gallery between the second and third acts, and was stepping from the third to the second row, when he lost his equilibrium. Several persons near reached out to seize him, but he shot over the railing. Physicians were unable last night to determine the extent of his injuries. For time those in the audience who had seen the form shoot downward were in a state of awe. Although badly frightened, women kept their seats and none of them fainted. A short while after Honvery was picked up it was announced to the audience what had occurred, and quiet was restored.

Suit for $100,000 Damages.

District Attorney Jerome in New York yesterday instituted two suits for libel against William Randolph Hearst in the sum of $100,000 each for alleged libellous publications in the New York American and Evening Journal of March 8. Mr. Jerome is represented in the matter by Howard S. Gans, former assistant district attorney, who arranged for the service complaint in the actions upon Clarence H. Shearn, Mr. Hearst's personal counsel. The suits were filed in the Supreme Court. The editorial in the American was a criticism of Mr. Jerome's alleged attitude in the case of a man named Tillinghast, who confessed to jury irregularities in the interest, he claimed, of a local street railway company. Tillinghast is now serving a sentence on the strength of his confession.

Plan for "Closed" Cemetery.

A movement took shape in Chicago Sunday looking to the establishment of a "union" cemetery, and within a month or two a plot of ground large enough for 5,000 graves will be reserved strictly for unionists. No other persons may be buried there. The joint cigar makers' union of Chicago have appropriated $15,000 from their treasury to carry out the scheme. They do not intend to keep the cemetery for the benefit of members of their own trade only, but will throw open the gates of the burying ground to other unions of Chicago. It is expected that the rest of the 750 labor organizations of the city will join in the plan.
